Subject: Available Information on Listening to Broadcasts in the Baltic Languages

1. Audience Research Division examined its reports for the years 1962 and 1963 and found only four indications of such listening which are given below:

- a. A 1961 Ukrainian emigrant in his late thirties, a factory worker with a high school education, admitted listening in L'vov, Ukrainian SSR to several Western stations including Radio Madrid. (TALR #6-63)
- b. A November, 1961 defector from the Soviet Union who lived in the Uzbek and Ukrainian SSR's, 32 years old, admitted listening to several Western radio stations including the Vatican. He noted: "Radio 'Vatican' is seldom listened to -- mainly, because its broadcasts are generally apolitical. Radio 'Vatican' may become as popular as VOA, Radio Liberty, or the BBC when its broadcasts on religious subjects include mention of the persecution of the Orthodox, Roman Catholic, and the Jewish religion in the Soviet Union." (TALR #8-63).
- c. "We listen to you from Italy, Rome, the Vatican, Madrid..." (LMR #143-62 from Katowice, Poland).
- d. "Again we thank you and those from America, Italy, Canada, Madrid, and the Vatican for your work." (LMR #192-62 from Katowice, Poland).

2. This division has no research teams in the field and only two part-time correspondents and thus the yield of further evidence is unlikely to be great. However, field correspondents will be made aware of this current requirement.
